THE CLOSING RALLY.

CAPT. ATTKISSON AND MR. PUL-LIAM SPEAK IN MANCHESTER.

Personal and Other Items.

The campaign in Manchester was practically ended last night. The Democrats held a rally in the First Ward, when made speeches. They were introduced by Chairman E. H. Wells, of the City Central There will be no speaking at Leader Hall to-morrow night. The City Committee held a meeting last night. and decided that, in view of the fact that General Fitzhugh Lee could not deliver an address Monday, it would probably be best not to hold the meet-

Mr. Henry J. Vaughan, a well-known citizen of Swansboro', died yesterday morning about 7 o'clock. The deceased had been in bad health for about twelve months, and his death was not unex-pected. Mr. Vaughan was employed as watchman at Williams's tobacco factory in Richmond. He leaves a wife and seve-ral children.

in Richmond. He leaves a wife and several children.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Marshall Cotton Manufacturing Company Mr. Mathew Morton was elected to fill the position of superintendent of the mills in this city, made vacant by the death of Mr. G. A. Pepie. Mr. Morton has been in the employment of the company for a number of years, holding a responsible position, the duties of which he performed with satisfaction to his company and credit to himself. He is a useful member of the City Council.

To-day is the twelfth anniversary of the pastorate of Dr. L. R. Thornhill at Bainbridge-Street Baptist church. There will be no special services for the event, but Dr. Thornhill will read a paper, reviewing the history and work of the church during the years of his pastorate. Rev. W. R. Haight will occupy the pulpit of Bainbridge-Street Baptist church to-night, and after the sermon will administer the ordinance of baptism to several persons.

From papers all over the State it is learned that during the protracted drought wells have gone dry that have never been known to fail. This is not the case on Barton Heights. Every well here has stood the test, and there is no need of fearing a water-famine in this popular suburb.

Mr. Henry Stockmar and Miss Sallie 8. Beville were married at the residence of her sister, corner Barton avenue and of her sister, corner Barton avenue and Poe street, last Wednesday night. After the ceremony the happy couple left for Wytheville, the former home of the bride, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mr. H. L. Lorraine has been confined to his bed from an attack of lumbago for the past week. His many friends will be glad to learn that he is able to be about his room, and expects to be out and among them soon. His suffering was very great, but under the treatment of skilled physicians and aid by strong will-power he has pulled through very rapidly.

Highland Springs Notes.

Mr. E. S. Read's brick building, under erection, begins to look like a dwelling-house.

Miss Julia Widdows, of Washington, D. C., returned to her home Tuesday, after a pleasant visit to her children here.

Mr. Charlie Williams, of Wallace, Kan. an Brglishman, is visiting here. This gentleman represents three other families who desire to locate in this section of country, if their representative finds sufficient inducements to do so.

Owing to blood-poisoning in the family of Mr. F. Christian, they will remain here for a time.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Wednesday afternoon at church. There was a good attendance. It was decided to meet at officers' residences during the approaching cold season.

Game is becoming exceedingly scarce in this section, owing to the negligence of the county, authorities in enforcing game-laws.

Mr. Fugat, of Richmond College, preached to a good congregation here Sunday last Hall Thursday evening by some of our young people.

Never before in the history of this section have there been so many cases of blood-poisoning, there being seven or more cases at present under treatment.

Mrs. Harker continues a sufferer from eccema, and is unable to go out.

The most delightful children's affair ever given here occurred last Friday evening, when Magdalene Raabe was tendered a surprise-party by a darge number of little friends. Master Guy Christian, personnting a magician, was greeted with merry shouts, as his magical wand passed and repassed in its many wonderful executions. Among the older people present were: Mrs. Dr. Spindle, Mrs. Frank Stagleider, and Mr. Charles Williams, of England.

to an encore for their brilliam mandolin and guitar work. The Highland Springs Male Quartette did themselves credit by their excellent rendition of "Away to the Woods." The debate between silverand goldbugs was rich in the extreme. Statistics without number were brought to bear on gither side, and at one time excitement ran high. The debate will be taken up again next meeting.

The old Programme Committee was reelected, composed as follows: Mrs. Charles Raabe, Mrs. Rate Matthews, Miss K. Gebhardt, Professor Elmer Newell, and Mr. Percy S. Read.

depends largely on its purchasing power.

We BUY FOR CASH--ALWAYS--INVARIABLY. Everybody knows the power of ready money.

Is it any wonder that OPPORTUNITIES COME TO US that others never hear of?

A prominent maker of Ladies' Hats, who had the foresight to dispose of his stock at this time, has sold to us about 200 dozen of THIS SEASON'S STYLES IN SAILOR-WALKING HATS AND SHAPES at a price that enables us to offer them fully one third less than possibly a week ago. In other words—38c. Black and Navy Trimmed Cloth-Covered Sailors are now 19c.

22c. Satin-Top Navy and Black Trimmed Sailors are now 38c.

76c. Trimmed Felt Sailors, in Black only, now 48c.
